

WINTER AT DUNTON

Winter is a magical time to visit Dunton. Strap on a pair of snowshoes and explore the serene San Juan Mountains. Climb into Dunton's very own Snowcat and scale to 10,000 feet for a morning of cross-country skiing on trail laid out by former Olympic Nordic skier Wendy Wegner, or enjoy a winter wonderland experience at Dunton River Camp where the adventurous can delight in a number of winter activities and all can spend a cozy, comfortable morning nestled by the fire in the River Camp's Farm House enjoying hot chocolate. You have the opportunity to do as much or as little as you choose, without feeling guilty.

Please Note: While we strive to offer every experience listed, availability is subject to weather, trail conditions, and the well-being of our animals. Additionally, unforeseen circumstances such as maintenance or scheduling adjustments may impact certain activities. Our team's priority is to ensure your safety and provide exceptional service. Should any changes be necessary, we will offer thoughtful alternatives to ensure your Dunton adventure exceeds expectations.
